HEADS ARLINGTON NEAR EAST DRIVE

CLARENDON, Va., Jan. 15 .- The Rev. John Lee Allison. D. D., Presbyterian minister, of Alexandria, was appointed chairman of the Near East Relief in Arlington County to-day by Olive. J. Sands, State chair-man, in Richmond. His appointment marks the beginning of an active campaign for the raising of Arlington County's quota of $4,920 in the State-wide drive for $390,000 in Vir-

"There is no question now tha Arlington County will raise its queta in the Near East drive," Mr. Sands wrote, "but every effort should be made to have the funds in hand as soon as possible. Thousands are homeless, in danger of freezing and starving. Only America can help them. There is no doubt that Ar-lington County will do its share, but it should be done at once to do the most good in this great work."
